High on the hill and with great views

This is one of the highest lots in the prestigious 'Grammar Rise Estate', Brassall, with amazing and unique 180 deg. views to the distant mountains beyond. This is really a 'special' block in a 'special' estate.

Most people can't visualize building on a sloping block but in fact you end up with a unique and highly desirable home!! And we have multiple designs available for you to inspect, that show you just what is possible with this great block. (and other blocks in the estate.)

The land is registered and ready to build on and at 881 sq.m. there is room for a caravan or a boat and a pool.

You must come to talk to our designer about how you can build your forever home on this dream block.

Visit the onsite Information Centre on Workshops St and walk over the land and soak up the views with one of our team.
